EDITOR'S NOTE

Hello!

My name is Tanaya Jog and I am bulletin editor for Jaggo! I am a sophomore this year at King High School!

Some of my aspirations and ambitions are to aid those in need and make a positive impact on women communities. I truly want to help women rise up and highlight the importance of mental and physical health.

As Bulletin Editor, I hope to conjoin my creativity and passion for serving the community to create interactive newspapers that are not only informative, but also are visually appealing.

Thank You!
Tanaya Jog

MEET THE FOUNDER

Hey!

My name is Diya Kar and I am so excited to be serving as the founder of Jaggo for the 2020-2021 term. I am an incoming senior at Valencia High School. I spend my free time researching in laboratories, tutoring low income children, and serving as Key Club President. Fun fact: I love SHARETEA and have an adorable puppy named LOLO

I know COVID 19 has taken a toll on many lives and the situation is certainly unprecedented. However, I have so much faith in our organization. Together, we can unify our voices and defeat gender stereotypes once and for all!!

Please remember, I am an email, text, or EVEN phone call away. Feel free to reach out to me if you have any questions, comments, concerns, or even just need someone to talk to.

Best,
Diya Kar

MEET OUR NEWEST SUB-ORGANIZATION!

Philippines

Hi! I'm Charlie Bautista. I'm 15 years old and an incoming Grade 10 student from the Philippines, serving as Jaggo PH's chief of finance. As a part of Jaggo, I aim to reach even more girls and become an inspiration to them to keep using their voice, to continue finding and using their passion to create an impact to our society today and remind them that they are never left unheard.

Hi!! I am Liv Dy Tiapco and I am 14 years old! I will serve as Jaggo Ph's head of logistics and program this year. I'm an advocate for gender equality, ocean recovery & restoration, and the betterment of the underprivileged children. I want to empower young women and girls to take pride in being a woman and not be ashamed of their bodies.

Hello! I'm Jada Bautista. I'm 15 years old, incoming grade 10 from Manila, serving as Jaggo PH's art director and executive. Working with Jaggo and a genuine mindset, I aim to gather a growing circle of like-minded girls who have a constant drive to serve and lead.

Hi! I'm Jeyann Abundo, I'm 14 from the Philippines and I'm an incoming sophomore! I'm Jaggo PH's editor-in-chief. From an early age, I've always wanted to be a catalyst for change. I'm very passionate about helping others and I'm extremely motivated to empower women to be their best and to achieve their dreams, which is why I decided to be a part of Jaggo.

MEET OUR NEWEST SUB-ORGANIZATION!

Los Angeles

Hi! My name is Sara Maity and i am the founder and president of the Jagger sub-organization in LA. I am a sophomore at Laces high school. My main motivation for starting a jagger sub-org is to empower and help woman who are impacted with social, emotional, physical and any other kinds of trauma. As part of Jagger, i want to help empower women and create gender equality.

Hi!! My name is Jasmine Lam and I am an upcoming sophomore at Laces High School. I am especially excited to be part of this sub organization of Jagger because empowering women is crucial, yet is often overlooked by many.

Hi, my name is Laura Miller and I will be a sophomore at Laces High School in the upcoming school year. As an important member of our sub-organization of Jagger I am so excited to help promote female empowerment in my community.

Hi I'm Kate Misher and I am the treasurer of Jagger! I'm a sophomore at LACES and involved in Roots and Shoots, LACES outreach, and the tennis team. I'm passionate about making a real change in the world which is why I'm being a part of Jagger!

MEET OUR NEWEST SUB-ORGANIZATION!

New Jersey

My name is Sneha Patibandla and I am a rising junior at John P. Stevens High School In New Jersey! I am so excited to be the Jaggo New Jersey State President and am looking forward to continuing to empower women around the world. Coming from an Indian background I found it even more prevalent for me to get involved after seeing the outreach Jaggo has spread towards girls and women in India through the NGOs they have worked with.

Hi! My name is Sharon Pan, and I'll be one of the Vice Presidents for JAGGO NJ! I'm going to be a junior at John P. Stevens High School in Edison, NJ this year. During my spare time, I tend to read books, go on walks, or draw. I'm always up to help people, and I can't wait to work with everyone on this mission!

Hi! My name is Tia Sarkar and I'm the Secretary of Jaggo New Jersey! I'm going to be a junior this year at John P. Stevens High School! I'm so excited to be a part of this organization, fundraise for events, and raise awareness of the problems women face over the world.

Hi, my name is Krishi Patel and I am going to be a junior at John P. Stevens High School. I am really excited to be a part of the Jaggo NJ Board and hope to make a change as being treasurer. Being a part of Jaggo is a very important privilege to me and I hope I can fulfill my role as treasurer and make a change in society and in the lives of impoverished women.

My name is Nikita Shinil and I am a junior in JP Stevens High School. I believe that Jaggo's mission is both innovative and impactful as we strive to bring new opportunities for women all around the world, especially in India. As Head of Journalism, I hope to create and publish articles that will bring awareness to the issues many women face everyday.
